CLASS DESCRIPTION

Pee Wee (3-4 years old) – Fun and active 30 min class designed to introduce young children to the game of tennis through fun hand-eye coordination drills needed to transition to racquet handling skills. Classes are taught using low compression red felt balls in 36' courts with smaller nets.

Red Ball (5-7 years old) – Fun and active 45 min class to introduce young players to the game of tennis. Activities are designed to develop racquet handling skills, stroke fundamentals, hand-eye coordination and basic footwork. Classes are taught using low compression red felt balls in 36' courts with smaller nets.

Orange Ball (7-10 years old) – This one hour class is designed to teach young players the different grips, stances, and basic spins associated with each particular stroke. More advanced footwork, singles and doubles match play, tennis etiquette, and basic strategy will be introduced through drills and games. 60' courts and orange balls are used.

Green Ball (9-11 years old) – This class is ideal for young players who have successfully completed the orange ball class and/or feel comfortable rallying full court. Activities are designed to continue the development of proper technique, improve consistency, anticipation skills, and shot selection to prepare players for competitive rallies and team tennis. Regulation court and green balls are used.

U12 Drills – This hour and a half class is ideal for intermediate level young players who have team tennis match play experience and would like to continue improving technically and strategically. Drill, games, and competitive singles and doubles match play will help players take their game to the next level.

U14, U18 Drills – This hour and a half class is ideal for intermediate level young players who have USTA team tennis match play experience and would like to continue improving technically and strategically. Drill, games, and competitive singles and doubles match play will help players take their game to the next level. Players will be divided based on age group.

Youth Tennis 2 – This class is ideal for players who have limited experience playing tennis and are interested in learning the game. Activities are designed around stroke development, proper footwork, strategic games and drills to get them ready for long rallies and match play. Students may be divided into groups based on skill level.

Youth Tennis 1 – This class is designed for advanced players of all ages who have experience playing competitive tennis (high-school tennis and/or USTA tournaments at different levels). Dynamic warm ups, stretching, conditioning exercises, live drills, and competitive match play are designed to maximize individual strengths, improve shot anticipation and selection, promote mental toughness, and develop sound strategies under different playing scenarios. Students may be divided into groups based on age.

Junior Development 2 (11-14 years old; approval required) – This class is ideal for motivated advanced-intermediate to advanced players who are looking to take their game to the next level. Activities are designed around full stroke development, the use of different spins to improve shot selection, advanced footwork, developing individual strengths, recognizing opponent's weaknesses, and anticipating shots.

Junior Development 1 (14+ years old; approval required) – This class is ideal for motivated advanced-intermediate to advanced players who are looking to take their game to the next level. Activities are designed around full stroke development, the use of different spins to improve shot selection, advanced footwork, developing individual strengths, recognizing opponent's weaknesses, and anticipating shots.

Advanced Training 2 (all ages; by invitation or approval only) – This class is designed for advanced players of all ages who have experience playing competitive tennis (high-school tennis and/or USTA tournaments at different levels). Dynamic warm ups, stretching, conditioning exercises, live drills, and competitive match play are designed to maximize individual strengths, improve shot anticipation and selection, promote mental toughness, and develop sound strategies under different playing scenarios. Students may be divided into groups based on age.

Advanced Training 1 (14+ years old; by invitation or approval only) – This class is designed for advanced players who have experience playing high-school tennis and/or USTA tournaments at different levels. Dynamic warm ups, stretching, conditioning exercises, live drills, and competitive match play are designed to maximize individual strengths, improve shot anticipation and selection, promote mental toughness, and develop sound strategies under different playing scenarios.
